

Ultimate Survival Senior Instructor (Roaming)

Making school holidays extraordinary

The Details

Title: Ultimate Survival Senior Instructor (Roaming)

Reporting to: Ultimate Survival Camp Leader

Contract: Seasonal work available during Summer holidays.

Hours: 8am – 6pm weekdays.

Additional Hours: 3 additional hours may be required on Thursday nights (6-9PM) for Campfire Cookout (site dependent). If this is required, you will be paid overtime.

Summary of Position

The role of an Ultimate Survival Instructor is to use the provided resources to deliver quality, structured outdoor activities to groups of children aged 7 to 14. In addition to delivering Survival sessions, you have a pastoral role, ensuring the safety & wellbeing of children on camp.

This is a roaming role, the Roaming Instructor is assigned a weekly schedule across multiple camps within their local area and should be able to react to schedule changes at short notice. Travel expenses are paid and, where long journeys are required, accommodation can be provided.

Duties and Responsibilities

- Travel to camp according to the route supplied by Head Office, prepared to react to last minute changes. (Travel expenses will be covered at 30p per mile).
- Prepare and deliver activities for children aged 7-14, focusing on participation, development and enjoyment, while working both alone and alongside other staff.
- Take a pastoral role as a group leader, welcoming new children into your group and liaising with the Camp Leader and/or parents as necessary.
- Ensure all policies and procedures on camp are adhered to by yourself and the children in your care, including all health and safety, and safeguarding procedures.
- Continuously promote the safety & wellbeing of the children in your care.
- As a second in command, be ready to step into a more senior Ultimate Survival Camp Leader role when required.
- Supervise and engage with the children outside of activity times.
- Show high levels of energy, enthusiasm, and professionalism, acting as a suitable role model for the children.

Bring your skills. Leave with more.
